TWO FORMER STUDENTS ORDAINED IN 1963

Father Macaulay, newly ordained graduate of College, celebrated Mass before the student body.

On June 8, 1963, Father Maurus Macrae O.S.B., and Father Neil Macaulay O.M.I. were ordained by Archbishop Johnson. Having graduated from Vancouver College in 1955, Fr. Macaulay entered the Oblate Seminary in Ottawa. He is now at work in the Oblate missions in Peru. Father Maurus attended College from 1935 to 1939 - grades 3 to 7. He gave up a law profession to enter the Benedictine Order. At present he is furthering his studies at Westminster Abbey in Mission.

DEDICATION

REVEREND BROTHER E. B. WALSH

Besides teaching courses in Math and History, Br. Walsh also instructs Mechanical Drawing.

In 1914 a young man from Carlow, Ireland joined the Irish Christian Brothers. In 1964 he celebrates his Golden Jubilee — fifty years in the service of God; fifty years shaping characters and destinies; fifty years of selfless dedication.

Brother Walsh's first three years in the Order were spent at O'Connell School, in Dublin, and a total of nine years was spent in different locations in Ireland before joining the American Province in 1923. In that year, he was one of the four original Brothers sent to open O'Dea High School in Seattle.

In 1924 Brother was transferred to Vancouver College, and here he remained for a period of four years. This was the first of several periods over the space of forty years which together constitute some thirty-one years in the service of Vancouver College alone.

Brother Walsh was next stationed at St. Mary's College in Halifax, and it was there that he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. In 1929 he returned to Vancouver College for the second time and here he remained until 1936. In the interval he received his Master of Arts degree from Gonzaga University in Spokane. In 1936 Brother was transferred to Victoria to serve as principal of St. Louis College. He remained in that post until 1939 — the beginning of the Second World War.

He returned to Vancouver to guide College as principal through the difficult war years. When the war was over, Brother Walsh went to the United States; to Leo High School in Chicago first, then to All Hallows in New York, and finally Cardinal Farley Military Academy, also in New York. He spent, then, a total of five years in the United States, and studied art at the Chicago Art Institute, and sculpture at Columbia University.

Finally, in 1950, Brother Walsh and Vancouver College were again reunited. He has been here ever since.

It is with great respect and admiration for a man and a teacher and a follower of Christ that we dedicate this book, the yearbook of Vancouver College, to Brother E. B. Walsh.

In the very early years of Vancouver College, Br. Walsh organized many excursions to Grouse Mountain to enjoy the rather primitive accommodation there. The above group was taken during the winter of 1926-1927 on the top of Grouse Mountain. STANDING: Harry Lyons, Doug Conrad. KNEELING: Jack Allen, Donald Voughon-Smith, Henry Yours. SECOND ROW: John Barnes, Norman Allen, Brother Walsh, Charles Cudlipp. FRONT ROW: Noel Bourgoyne, Hugh Fell, Jock Hipwell, Sam Gorvin.

The ceremony of ordination at which the two former students, Fr. Neil Macoulay and Fr. Mourus Macrae, were ordained on June 8, 1963.

Fr. Swinkels distributes Holy Communion at first Friday Mass.

New Look in CAMPUS VIEWS -NICHOL HALL

The above diagram will show how Nichol Hall completes the structure begun by Br. Lannon in 1924. It joins on to McCormack Hall, completed in 1927, and Mackin Hall, built in 1957.

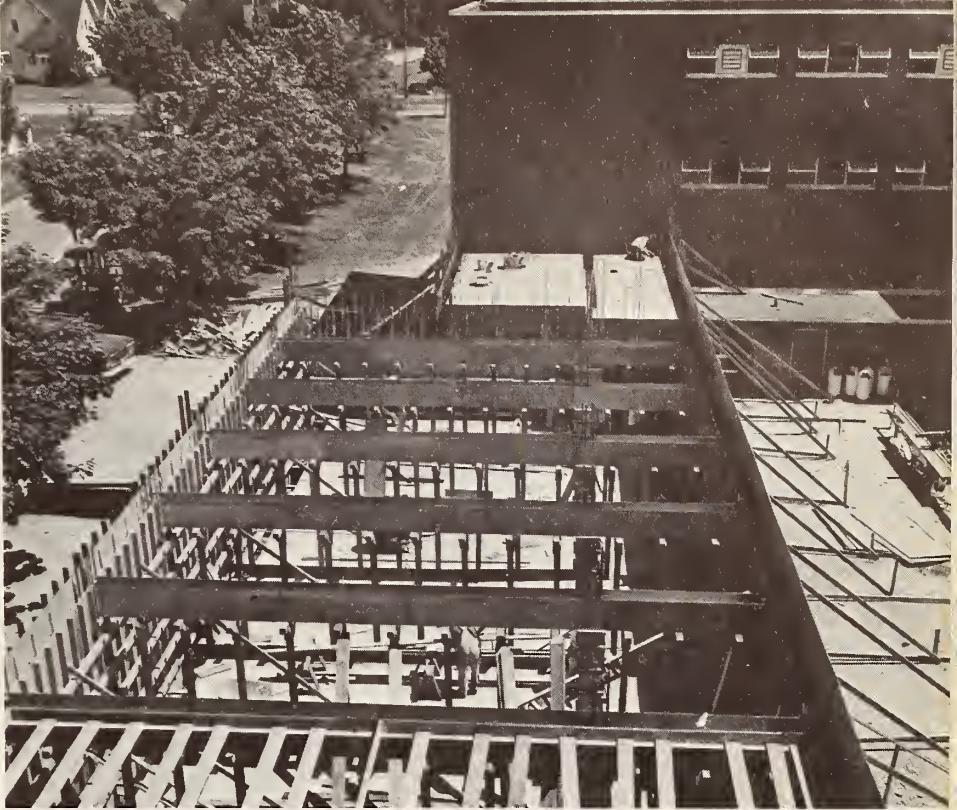

Junior Boarders take full advantage of their new study hall.

This year saw the completion of a modern addition to College's facilities. Monsignor Nichol Hall is a modern, three floor structure, built with an eye to the future. The first and second floors contain six classrooms; the third floor embodies a study room and completely up-to-date laboratory facilities for Chemistry, Physics and Biology. Storage space is extremely generous, and could be adapted to the use of a Grade Thirteen in the event that it is ever included.

The new science lab will accommodate up to forty-two students working singly. Storage facilities and accommodation have been provided for Physics and Chemistry, and eventually, Biology. The Grade Eleven group, pictured above doing a Chemistry experiment, was the first to use the new laboratory.

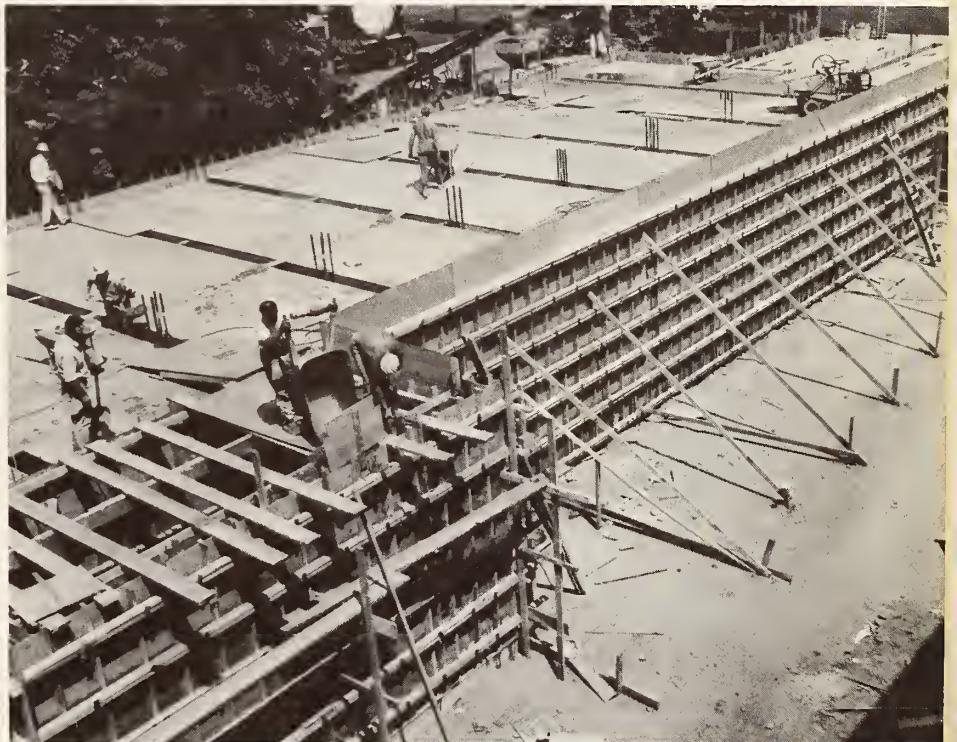

Early spring sees the start of construction of the new wing.

Grade Eight students prepare for a day of classes.

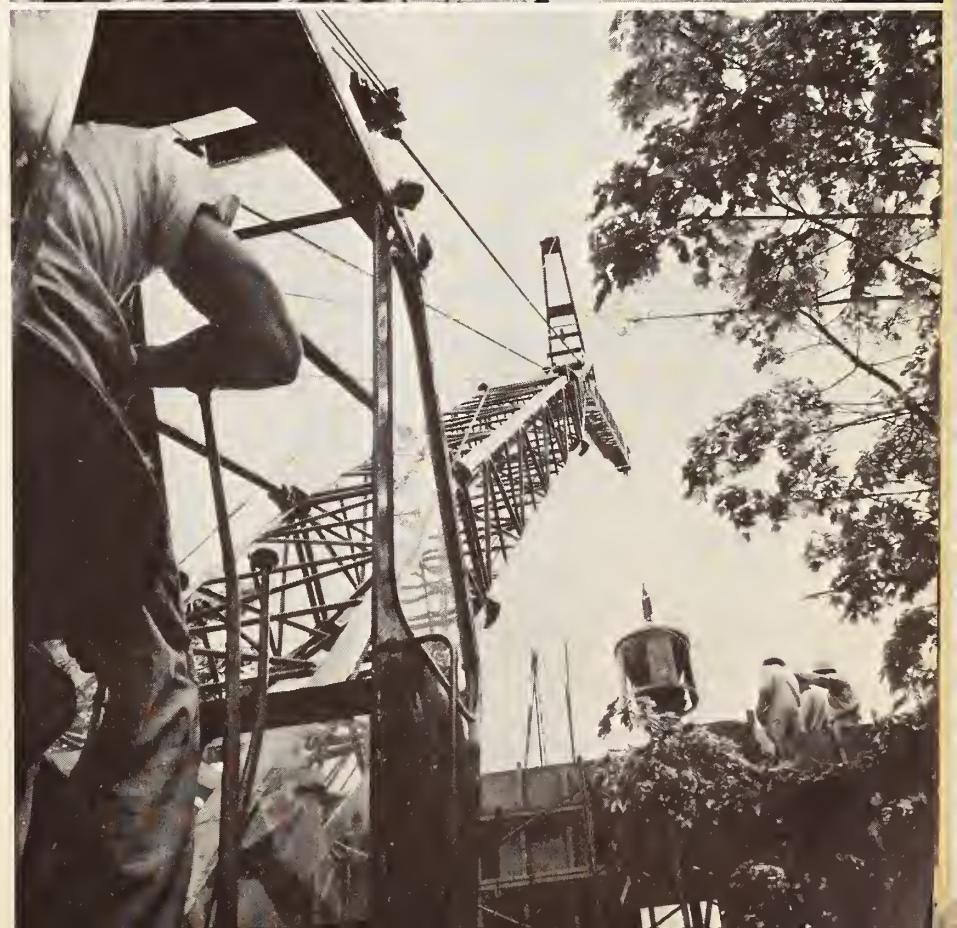

Tons of concrete are needed for Nichal Hall.

The camera gives an inside look at one of the six spacious classrooms.

Busy construction workers rush toward a November deadline.

1964

JOHN S. ARTHUR

One of the rough-tough Burnaby crowd, John has been pacified to a certain extent during his seven-year term here. Although much of his time is taken up by hockey and intramurals, scholastically, he still has time for an honours course in study periods. John will take up medicine at university.

A typical day begins with the arrival of seventeen seniors who seem unconcerned about what may lie ahead.

JOSEPH P. BEAUPRE

As the Yearbook's activities editor, Joe can usually be found in the Chem Lab at work—lounging in the red chair and describing the fabulous weekend soirees. When not "working" he is either planning another pep rally or engaged in some athletic venture—paal. His purpose in life—to learn.

BRENT W. BITZ

From Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, Brent has seen V.C. grow in the last twelve years. He has been a cheerleader, a track and field star and an intramurals enthusiast. After school hours see him assisting on the yearbook—when not indulging in his hobby, "hat racks." Teaching will be Brent's career.

TERRY E. AUDETTE

A former student at Blessed Sacrament School, Terry came here in grade nine. A member of the now defunct pep band, he now confines his extracurricular activities to intramural sports (You name it; he probably plays it). A commerce and economics genius, he is a budding chartered accountant.

PHILIP R. BLANCHARD

A semi-sophisticated student, Phil transferred from O.L.P.H. in Grade eleven. He has managed to successfully combine an active high school career, including participation in intramural sports and yearbook, with a part-time job at the Ramada Inn. Phil will enter the field of chemical engineering after graduation.

FRED K. BUDLER

Fred has made the trip fram the rain-drenched mountains of North Van ta the sunny plateau af 39th and Cartier since grade three. Thraughout high schaal he has been an Hanaur student and an active participant in intramurals. A high school teaching career is in the affering far him.

BRIAN D. BURKE

An ald face arround here, Brian first graced V.C. with his presence in Grade twa, and has since braught hame the hardware as far as schalastic hanours are concerned. This year, an early seasan yearbaak caup saw Brian seize power as Business Editar and jain the ranks of the ather despats.

JOHN T. CAMPBELL

Vancouver seems ta be just another stop alang the way ta bigger and better things far Jahn. Born in Glascau, Scotland, he lived in Prince Rupert far a few years before coming ta V.C. in Grade seven. Never one ta be idle, Jahn is active in sports and C.Y.O. Business administratian is his chosen field.

ROY J. CAREY

A four year student, Ray is well known far his football achievements this seasan. Although occupied by sports, he also belongs ta the Sadality and the Monogram Club. After a hard day at schaal including an exhausting Commerce 10 period, Ray feels there is na need far the pile of homework awarded him.

A group of husky seniors carry the organ back ta the Chapel after First Friday Mass.

PHILIP G. CARTWRIGHT

One of Burnaby's sons, Phil came ta College in Grade nine, an a schalarship, and since then has distinguished himself academically, especially in Mathematics. Besides studies, Phil indulges in a wide variety of intramural sports. He hopes to take up engineering as a career.

HAROLD J. CLARE

Harald, one of our better students, earned particular distinction in the Chemistry 91 exam. His senior year has seen him occupied as Graduate's editor of the yearbook, Sadality Prefect and accompanist of the Glee Club. With this background of interest and achievement, Harald is considering teaching as a career.

DENNIS G. DEACON

A former student at Sir Wilfred Laurier Elementary, Dennis carved out his own little niche six years back. Size is definitely not what counts in his case; he has been a faithful participant in the post-lunch athletic league. Presently Dennis is debating the merits of accountancy and engineering.

ROBERT I. DUFF

Bob's eight years here have been, for the most part, busy ones. Glee Club and athletics have consumed much of his precious time; for the past two years he has been an active participant in the U.N. Club, taking a keen interest in international affairs. University and some scientific field will follow graduation.

J. TERRY EGAN

Terry was among the "eager beavers with smiling faces" who swelled the ranks four years back. A stint of four seasons at bowling was all the intramural activity he got entangled in. All other free time is taken up by his job as C.Y.O. president at Immaculate Conception and at Seafarth Highlander's training.

P. DANIEL EMANUELE

Dan is one of our oldies, and dates all the way back to Grade two. This year, he was active in intramurals, drama, and Sadality, with particular distinction in the latter as editor of THE B.C. SODALIST. A busy schedule notwithstanding, Dan has appeared consistently on the honor roll.

Gus Fartuny, Phil Blanchard, and Ray Carey help themselves to the goodies in the Canteen.

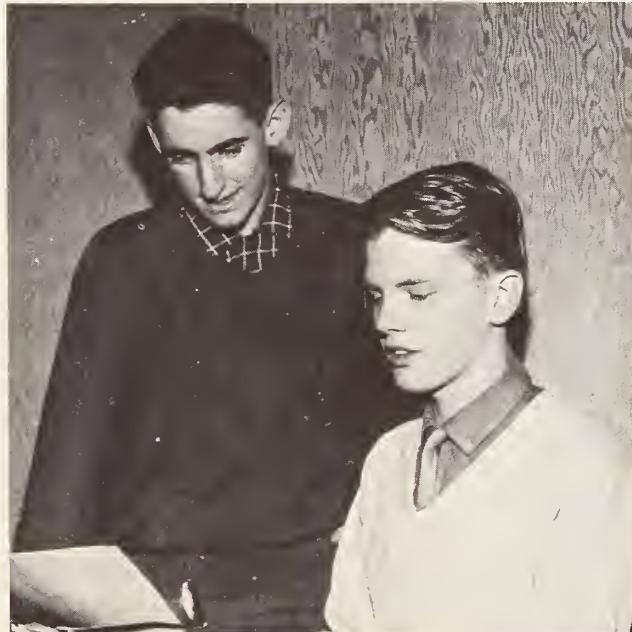

DANIEL L. FERGUSON

From Pleasantside B.C., Dan has been a student here since Grade ten. Besides being a veritable encyclopedia on sports, he indulges in them actively, including boarders' sports as well as intramurals. Dan's scholastic preferences include Math, Economics, and Commerce; his future is yet undecided.

HOWARD W. FIRTH

From Whitehorse, in "the Land of the Midnight Sun," Howard included boarders' activities in his schedule during this, his third year at College. Howard's hobbies include being a self-styled movie critic. His principal scholastic interests lie in economics and literature. He hopes to go into general insurance.

Dave Smyth (editor) and Mike Holladay (sports) go over the copy and discuss the "new look" for the next issue of the Blue Sheet.

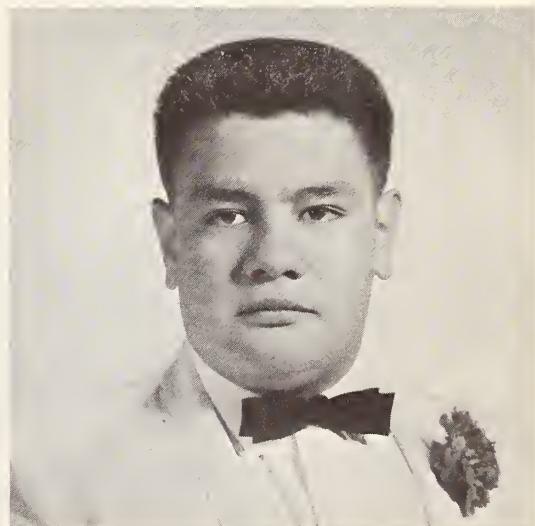

THOMAS P. FIRTH

From the Yukon, Tam is proud to be an all-Canadian winter-boy. For the past two years he has handled the job of manager of the basketball team. In the classroom he bursts forth with many profound discourses on the virtues of the Yukon. Tom's future lies in insurance.

CHARLES A. FISHER

Following in the footsteps of his brother, Charlie came to us from Lumby, B.C. in Grade nine. Since then he has made his mark in athletic field, particularly football. Because of his mild sense of humour and interest in activities, Charlie has gleaned many "fans" around here. He will go into the lumber business.

AUGUSTO A. FORTUNY

Gus, a boarder from Guatemala City, has been at V.C. since Grade seven. Athletically inclined, he has shown a keen interest in intramural as well as school sports over the years. Gus has been a class officer since his arrival. He hopes to see his future in electronical engineering.

GARY F. GILRAINE

Gory has the distinction of being the only senior on our varsity basketball team. Although this takes up much of his time, it has not prevented him from working under the Sports editor's watchful eye. Studies are not forgotten either, as Gory, an Honour student, will study forestry at U.B.C.

RODGER J. GREGORY

Rodger's four years here have been rewarding ones. A half-back on the football team, he received the most valuable player award at the football dinner. Besides having been a class officer for several years, he has also been on the Honour Roll. He is also Prefect of the Archdiocesan Sodality Federation.

BYRON J. R. HALL

A former Mission High student, Byron came here as a boarder last year. During his stay, he has managed to get involved in a number of senior boarders' activities. As the driver of a big Buick, he dislikes being passed by a Volkswagen on the highway. U.B.C. and the Faculty of Law are next for him.

MICHAEL B. HALLADAY

Arriving from St. Augustine's on a scholarship, Mike has made himself well known during his four years here. Besides studies, he has given time to the yearbook as Sports editor and has participated in sports throughout high school. He will pay his way through U.B.C. by being a life-guard in his spare time.

PHILIP B. HARRISON

Phil was a student here from Grades one to eight, but managed to escape to Australia for three years where he attended Xavier College in Melbourne. Back once again, his final year saw him participating in yearbook and several intramural sports. He has medicine in view as his future career.

GRADUATES

Br. Finch searches for a correct answer to a Physics problem on buoyancy.

Mr. Manuel Espinasa, our photographer, gets everything just right for the final take.

H. LAWRENCE HOLLAND

Larry comes from North Vancouver. His checkered high school career has seen him participating in numerous organizations and activities, including volleyball and four frustrating years as a bowler. Larry hopes to become a chemical engineer, and towards this end, has consistently been on the Honour Roll.

FRANKLIN A. JANG

Frank has been a student here since Grade seven, and during those six years has proven an excellent scholar; his enthusiastic participation in intramurals has been balanced by consistent appearances on the Honour Roll. Frank has yet to decide whether to be a dentist or an architect.

F. BRUCE JAMIESON

Throughout his twelve years, Bruce has participated in activities consistently. He earned his Varsity track letter in Grade ten and since then has been a member of the Monogram Club. Bruce has organized numerous school dances and has served as a class officer since grade eleven. Geology is his chosen field.

K. ROBERT HARTSHORNE

After three years of Mr. Bennett's buses, Robert decided to make a departure from the old routine, and got a spanking new red car. His commuting hours reduced, he has more time for extracurricular activities and study, especially his pet subjects, Latin and Math. Next year Robert will make the trip to U.B.C. every day.

WILLIAM A. JANYK

A former resident of Haneyman Bay, Bill had the good fortune of being a boarder for three years before becoming a day student. Though small in size, Bill really shines when it counts—in Glee Club and as water boy for the Varsity football team. After graduation, he will become an Aeronautics Engineer for the R.C.A.F.

JOHN R. JAYE

Prior to coming here in 1958, John attended St. Augustine's. John is interested in intramurals and Varsity track; he has participated also as a cheerleader. By taking up mechanical engineering at U.B.C., John will utilize his favorite subjects, Math and Physics, and his hobby, automobiles.

J. TERRY JORDAN

A former student at St. Pat's H.S., Terry has attended V.C. for the past two years. Carefree by nature, he is respected among his own for his seemingly non-conformist attitude about study. His athletic endeavours include football, volleyball, and judo. Terry plans to take an electronics course in the Navy.

STEVEN E. KALLOS

A former Hungarian citizen (he dislikes the term "refugee"), Steve emigrated rather hastily in 1956. Four years ago he came to College and has since made a name for himself for his frank opinion of the "Reds." Steve takes an interest in the languages and has a private tutor for Latin 92—Br. Finch.

The quiet stillness of the late morning (top) is broken by the 12:20 bell and the ensuing rush (below).

TED F. KOTSCHOREK

One of the bright lights on the football team, Ted has been at College four years now. His athletic ability extends beyond the turf into the basketball court and baseball diamond. Nevertheless he still has time for study, C.Y.O. parties, and a very interesting job at a brewery. Accountancy will be his profession.

RON KREBS

Ron comes to us from Cassiar, B.C. Besides being active in intramurals, he also delights in his favorite subjects, German 92, English 91 and trigonometry. In connection with the latter, Ron had a surveying job during the summer. His ambition is to obtain an architectural degree.

CHRISTOPHER J. LAM

Chris, a border from Hong Kong, in his two years here has contributed much to the atmosphere of V.C. As an artist, his services have been in demand by the school and the yearbook. A philosopher by nature, Chris always surprises everyone with his gentle satire and puns. He plans to study science in the States.

WILLIAM G. LIDDELL

A farmer student of Loyola College, Montreal, Bill arrived some four years ago. A regular on the Honour Roll, he has also been active in inter-class sports. In his senior year, Bill has lent his artistic touch to a certain section of the Collegeton. University and perhaps medicine will occupy him for the next few years.

Br. Botes and some of his former students review some old times. From Left to Right, B. Jamieson, B. Bitz, D. Smyth, Br. Botes, P. Harrison, D. Wallbaum, and M. Morinoff.

MARK S. LUTTRELL

Mark has been a boarder for six years and comes originally from Duncan. He has participated in a wide variety of intramural sports during his high school career, as well as performing on essential service in handling the sound equipment in the gymnasium. Veterinary medicine is Mark's future.

BRIAN E. McCARRY

Brion's affable person has been around these halls since Grade five. For many years he was seen, camera in hand, in action at many of V.C.'s functions. This year he took over as the editor of the '64 Collegeton. A top Math and science student, he hopes to become a research chemist.

A. BRIAN McCLAY

Of all the students in this class of '64, Brion will probably be the hardest to forget. An Old-timer and arch-foe of conformity, he has certainly had more than his share of run-ins with members of the faculty. His unique characteristic is being able to smile when things get rough. And as for the future—???????

TIMOTHY D. McCONNELL

During his high school years Tim participated actively in numerous intramural sports. He has also proven an able student, and numbers Math and Commerce among his favorite subjects. Tim has been here nine years, and in Grade eight was the recipient of the Foley Scholarship. His ambition is a simple one: To Retire!

GRADUATES

NEIL B. McDONALD

Neil comes from Nelson, B.C. and has been a boarder for the past two years. Besides being active in intramural as well as boarders' sports, he has served back stage for Drama Club projects. Neil's favorite subjects include Commerce, Economics and Math; he plans to go into chartered accountancy.

J. RICHARD McHALE

Arriving here from London, Ont. in Grade eight, Rick immediately embarked on an active career. Although athletically inclined, being captain of the football team, he also finds time for his studies, and presidency of the Monogram Club. Rick plans to take up medicine at university.

D. CAMPBELL MacKENZIE

Grade eleven was the Year of MacKenzie at V.C., for it was then that Com descended upon us from his ancestral Squamish home. Com involved himself in intramural and boarders' activities very quickly, and developed typical College enthusiasm. As a sports car fan, he hopes in the future to be a Grand Prix driver.

Arlis (D. Wollbaum), the hero, is hoisted high by jubilant supporters Lord Max (M. Wisnicki) of the "Inner Sanctum."

PATRICK M. MAHONEY

A boarder from Port Alberni, Pat followed the trail blazed by his brother, one year later. Although not quite like the Mahoney all of us knew, he was a reasonable facsimile. His only diversion from long hours of study seems to be sports. Having cultivated an interest in the sciences, he may decide to enter this field.

MICHAEL J. MAHONEY

One of those students who burn the candle at both ends, Mike, an Honour student, feels a 24-hour day is too short for study. Since he "made the scene" as a boarder in Grade ten, he has participated in such activities and organizations as the Glee Club, Sodality, and the boarders' sports league. Physics is his chosen career.

MICHAEL J. MARTINOFF

Mike believes in self-assertion and has managed to do a fair amount of this since Grade one, whether on the subject of Social Credit, labour-management relations, or squash. He has no immediate plans for the future as he feels the world owes him a good time for services rendered.

GREGORY W. MELNECHUK

A happy-go-lucky guy, Greg's two years at College have been marred by several class periods in which one simply cannot snooze—notably English 91. All other things equal, Greg was a valuable asset for the Fighting Irish. At present, he has been too busy to decide what he will do in future years.

JIM W. METZLER

Another of this year's imports, Jim comes from Mission. Like many other boarders, he dislikes being rudely roused from slumber by a certain moderator's alarm clock around 5:30 a.m. Despite this, no other major inconveniences have beset him as a boarder. Jim hopes to get his "sea legs" by joining the Navy.

ROBERT W. MORGAN

Before coming to V.C. in Grade nine, Bob attended St. Joseph's School. Since then he has taken part in intramural activities and band; he is, as well, a veteran member of the Drama Club. Bob's favorite subjects include English, History and Economics. His future is not yet decided.

Br. Walsh thumbs through a confiscated magazine. Students' reactions are varied.

M. KEITH MOORE

A former resident of Nelson, Keith now enjoys the typical Vancouver weather. A four year student, much of his time is spent in study, but he also participates in sports. During the past year he gained valuable legal experience by working at the Courthouse on the famous B.C.E. case.

DAVID P. MURISON

Dave was an outstanding student here from Grades one to nine, combining scholastic proficiency with athletic participation. In that year he left for Nelson; in January 1964, he hastily returned as a boarder. Dave has a busy schedule and hopes to achieve his ambition—graduation from a university.

GRADUATES

The average student spends his pre-class hours in "quiet study!"

MICHAEL F. PATTERSON

Another of Red Deer, Alberta's famous sons, "Big Mike" crashed the party here at V.C. last year. Notable among his goings-on here was his "Big Bad Pirate" act for the St. Pat's concert last year, and his participation in sports. As president of the boarders, he gets to throw his weight around once in awhile.

NICHOLAS G. ORTON

A chap from the tea-drinking city of the Empire, Victoria. Nick's former abode was St. Louis College before he decided to transplant himself in Grade eleven. Although athletically inclined, his abilities transgress into the fields of drama and philosophy. Victoria University is the next step on the ladder for him.

ALLEN D. PENLAND

Al has surprised his classmates on numerous occasions by making off-the-cuff observations of singular (though perhaps superficial!) profundity. His occasional role as a pundit aside, however, he proved valuable to the yearbook as Grammar School editor, and has been a regular on the Honor Roll. Future? Nebulous.

ARDEN C. OSTRANDER

Arden, one of Ladner's contributions, has managed to make his way to and from the "sticks" far four years. Not only is he known for his participation in intramurals, but also rather infamous for his periodic demonstrations in the corridors over the years. A career in aviation or law will be his next splurge.

JAMES P. PHILLIPSON

A former St. Thomas Aquinas man, Jim has been "bombing" over from the North Shore for the past two years. His main diversion from the daily grind consists of a few tools and a car (preferably customized, if you please). Next year should see Jim embarking on a career as a draftsman.

GREGORY G. RAHN

An expert freelaader, Greg's six years here have been crowned with unusual success, much to the detriment of the Collegian's tea supply. However, he manages to divert some of his remaining leisure to more constructive endeavors and as a result, he is able to strike up a lusty tune on the old vocal chords in Glee Club.

THOMAS W. REYNOLDS

A newcomer this year, Tam comes from Ladysmith via Delbraak H.S. A quiet person, he dislikes certain loudmouthed Senior boasters. Tam participates in boarders sports and delves into the inner regions of English 91. He hopes to make a big pile of money so he can get a yacht.

BONNER H. REINKING

A boaster from south of the border, Banner has been around since Grade eight. As an intramural bowler, he would prefer we get out of small time stuff and use ten-pins. Part of his after-school hours are spent preparing for his future career, banking, by counting money from the canteen and cafeteria.

GRADUATES

ROBERT R. RICE

Robert came here in Grade eleven to get away from the torrential rains of West Van. As most boarders, he spends his weekends chasing certain species of the human race; the rest of the week is spent in dreaming of all the scholarships he hopes to get from numerous famous universities.

Ted Katscharek thinks it's a good idea to make use of the new facilities as he receives an important document from Mrs. Fry.

FRANK D. SALMON

Another of the boys from the "East Side," Frank attended St. Jude's Grammar School before coming to College in Grade nine. The 9-to-3:10 attitude hasn't affected him as his extra-curricular activities have included boxing, intramural football, and Sadosity. Frank plans to enter the seminary next fall.

GRADUATES

1964

JEROLD W. SCHLOSSER

Then: Jerry crossed the threshold and ambled up to the third floor—just another newcomer! Now: he only walks up to the second and is well known for his "up to the minute" report on cars and for being one of the winners in intramurals. Future plans include owning an Aston Martin.

Lunch period offers many opportunities for the "small-time" athlete to show his worth.

VICTOR J. SIMONS

An infamous practical joker, Vic has been up to his tricks every day now for four years. Needless to say that is not all he does; intramural sports, Glee Club and the honour of being a prominent member of the Drama Club occupy much of his free time. Vic is a future Chartered Accountant.

DAVID I. SMYTH

Active throughout his twelve years here, Dove has contributed much of his time this year as president of the U.N. Club, class officer, Collegen Copy Editor and editor of the Blue Sheet. An early arriver each day, Dove spends his pre-class time discussing pertinent affairs. After attending university, he hopes to make a career of writing.

JOHN C. SCORGIE

A welcome addition to the College, John made a spectacular entrance some two years ago. Since then he has been a controversial figure due to his seemingly unorthodox opinions on certain matters. This trait inviolable shows up in Economics, an essential course for the prosperous gentleman of the future.

FRANK L. SCHMIDT

Frank is a Richmond lad, a parishioner of St. Paul's in Richmond, and has attended College since Grade four. He has participated in intramurals during his high school years; academically, his favorite subjects include English 91 and History. Frank's ambition is, simply, to be a success.

PATRICK G. SOMERVILLE

This year's newcomer, Pat, has attended St. Thomas Aquinas H.S. Although a genial fellow, not much is known about him; however, like several other North Von. students, he has some peculiar habits—dislikes people who take History, but takes it anyway. To conclude the history, Pat plans to be a Chemical Engineer.

GREGORY J. STASHUK

A four year student, Gregory was Cecil Rhodes' gift to the College. Sports have been one of his main diversions. Recently the wonderful English 91 slumber was discovered, much to the displeasure of one teacher and discomfort of one student! He has earmarked the dental profession.

ERLING P. SUNDAHL

Erling came to us from Steveston High in Grade eleven. Since then he has participated with verve in intramural sports. After a tiring day and a long trek back to the old homestead in Richmond, he gives lessons on the accordion. Erling's favorite subjects include Math and Economics.

BRIAN C. J. TAYLOR

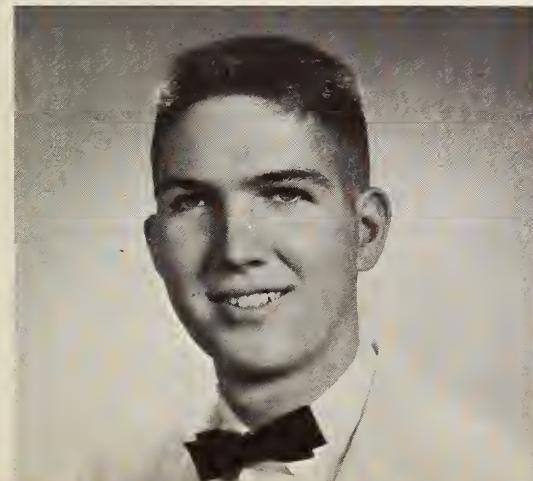

A boarder from Keremeos, Brian has been here since Grade eleven. As a student, he has teased the Honor Roll insidiously, but has never quite made it. Brian's favorite subject is Economics, and his hobbies include riding, hunting and a dabbling in the graphic arts. He hopes to see his future in the R.C.M.P.

Harold Clore and Brian McCarry operate the slide rules they won for top marks in the province in the Chemistry 91 Government Exam last June.

MICHAEL J. TRASOLINI

Michael is Father David MacDonald High School's contribution to the graduating class this year. A daily commuter, he has not, as yet, developed a dislike for riding buses. An avid historian, he channels his energies into the U.N. Club. Weather, health, finances, and intellect permitting, he will become a doctor.

The contented look and the absence of books is a sure indication that the school day has ended.

GRADUATES

DAVID C. WALLBAUM

Dave is one of our "old timers." As part of the "Beat Frequency" he has contributed an indefinable little something to the school's atmosphere. A devotee of Shakespeare and Arlis Frink, he despises pseudo-poets and all other forms of fraud. Dave has been consistently on the Honour Roll and active in intramurals.

CHRISTOPHER K. WINGHAM

Chris has been active since first attending Vancouver College in Grade six. He has included intramural football and basketball among his athletic interests; band and drama have occupied him too, as has yearbook, in which he served as High School editor. Chris' immediate ambition is to travel to Europe.

RICK F. TROY

With the influx of new students in Grade nine came one Rick Troy. Intramurals have been one of his mainstays to which he later added Sadality and dorm room work for the yearbook. He also spends his weekends with the Seafarth Highlanders Reserve. Rick will continue to study for his C.A.

HANK VAN DRIEL

A welcome addition to V.C., Hank came to us from Invermere in Grade nine. Academics is his specialty and as a result he is not only on the Honour Roll but also has Math as a hobby. Notwithstanding, he still has time for boarders' sports and Sadality. Hank plans to become a mathematical physicist.

MICHAEL I. WISNICKI

Mike, better known to his cohorts as "Lord Max," bombed into this square pad six crazy years back. A former track star, he now confines his athletic endeavours to the old standby—intramurals and his weekend jaunts to the alpine. His spare time is spent in composing poetry and appreciating jazz.

Grade eleven is often referred to as the deciding year, it is a year of concentrated study. This is the year of specialized subjects, whereby the student learns the details that were not dealt with in his first two years of high school. His religion course changes from the advanced study of catechism to a study of the New Testament. This year of intense study, with its new ideas and methods of presentation prepares the student for grade twelve and university. What he does this year will be, for the most part, an indication of his potential. During this period his character develops more than in the previous two years, the end result being a student, able to face the responsibilities of the senior year.

Dan Nyba paints to a particularly interesting passage in a literary classic. Bab Hickel and Jahn Begley express scholarly interest.

Terry Geluch thinks he has found a flaw in the architect's plans, while Jahn Gray and Dennis Gans reflect.

GRADE X

School Spirit Dominates Sophomore Scene

Grade ten is not an easy year to define. It is not grade ten in itself which is so significant. What IS important, is that the tenth year marks the point at which the high school student commences to solidify his ambitions.

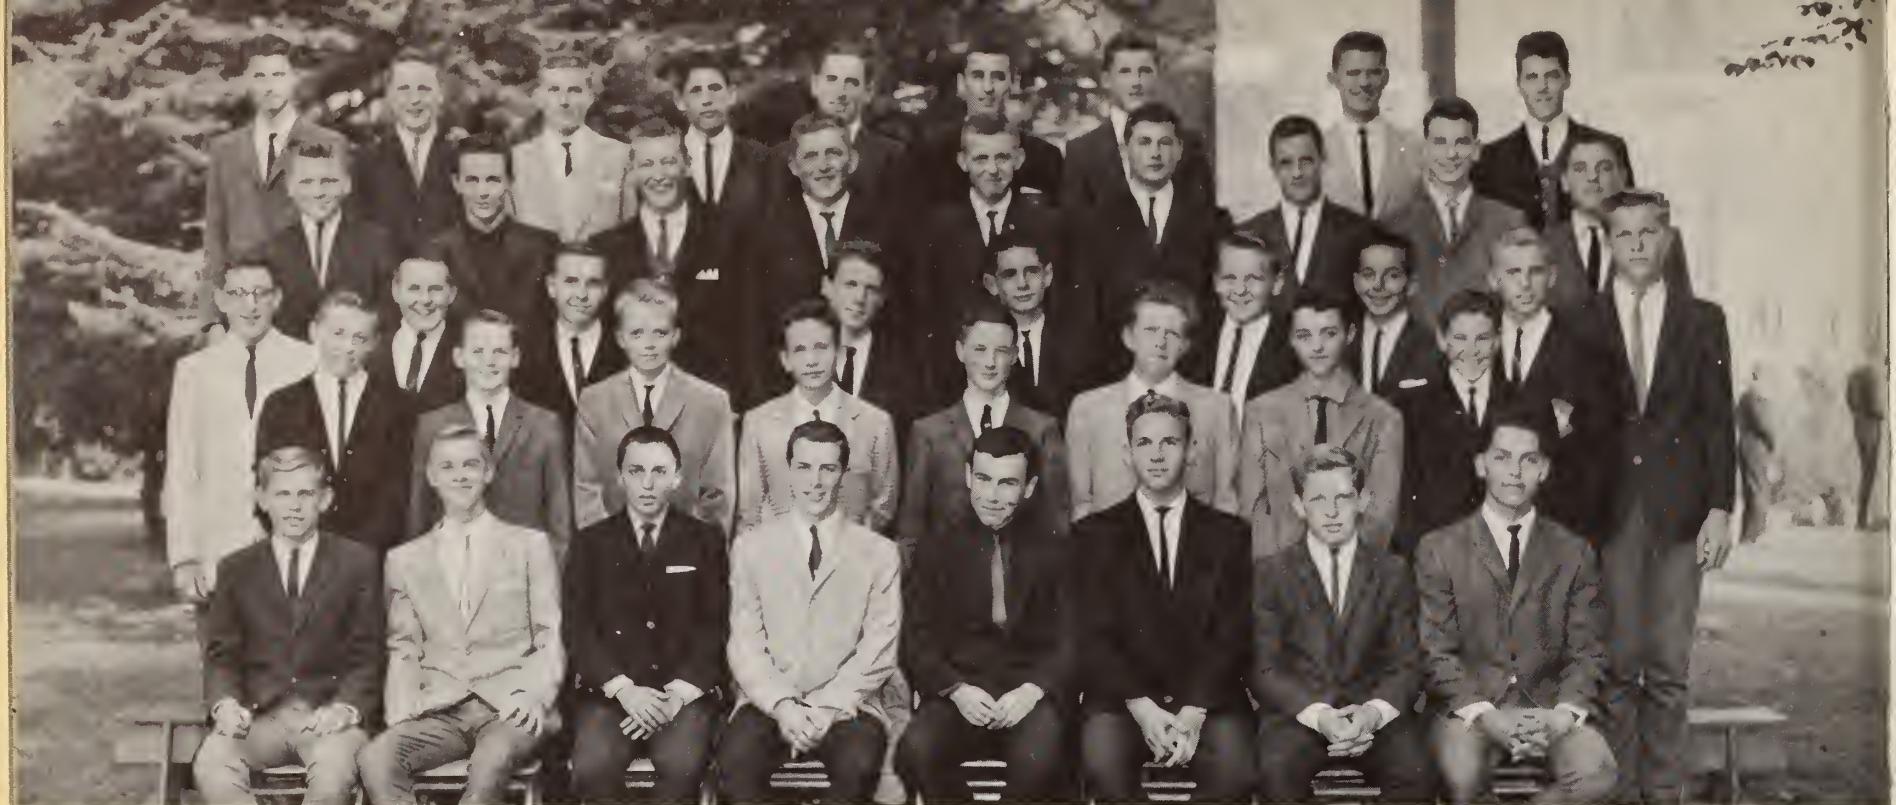

This is the last year during which his plans for the future can be completely vague.

Ahead are two years of decision. Years in which the student will concentrate on his own particular interests, as well as strive to maintain as high a standard of academic achievement as possible.

In no small way, then, the tenth grade is significant as a subtle turning point in a young man's high school career.

FIRST ROW: Harold Marsden, Pancha Gamez, Pierre Dube, Wayne Miller, Steve Rushford, Jae Scully, Rick Ainsbury, Ed Whittick. ## Freshmen Reflect Spirit in Studies

Moo! exclaims Br. Breen.

Two industrious Grade 9 students demonstrate the method of balancing chemical equations.

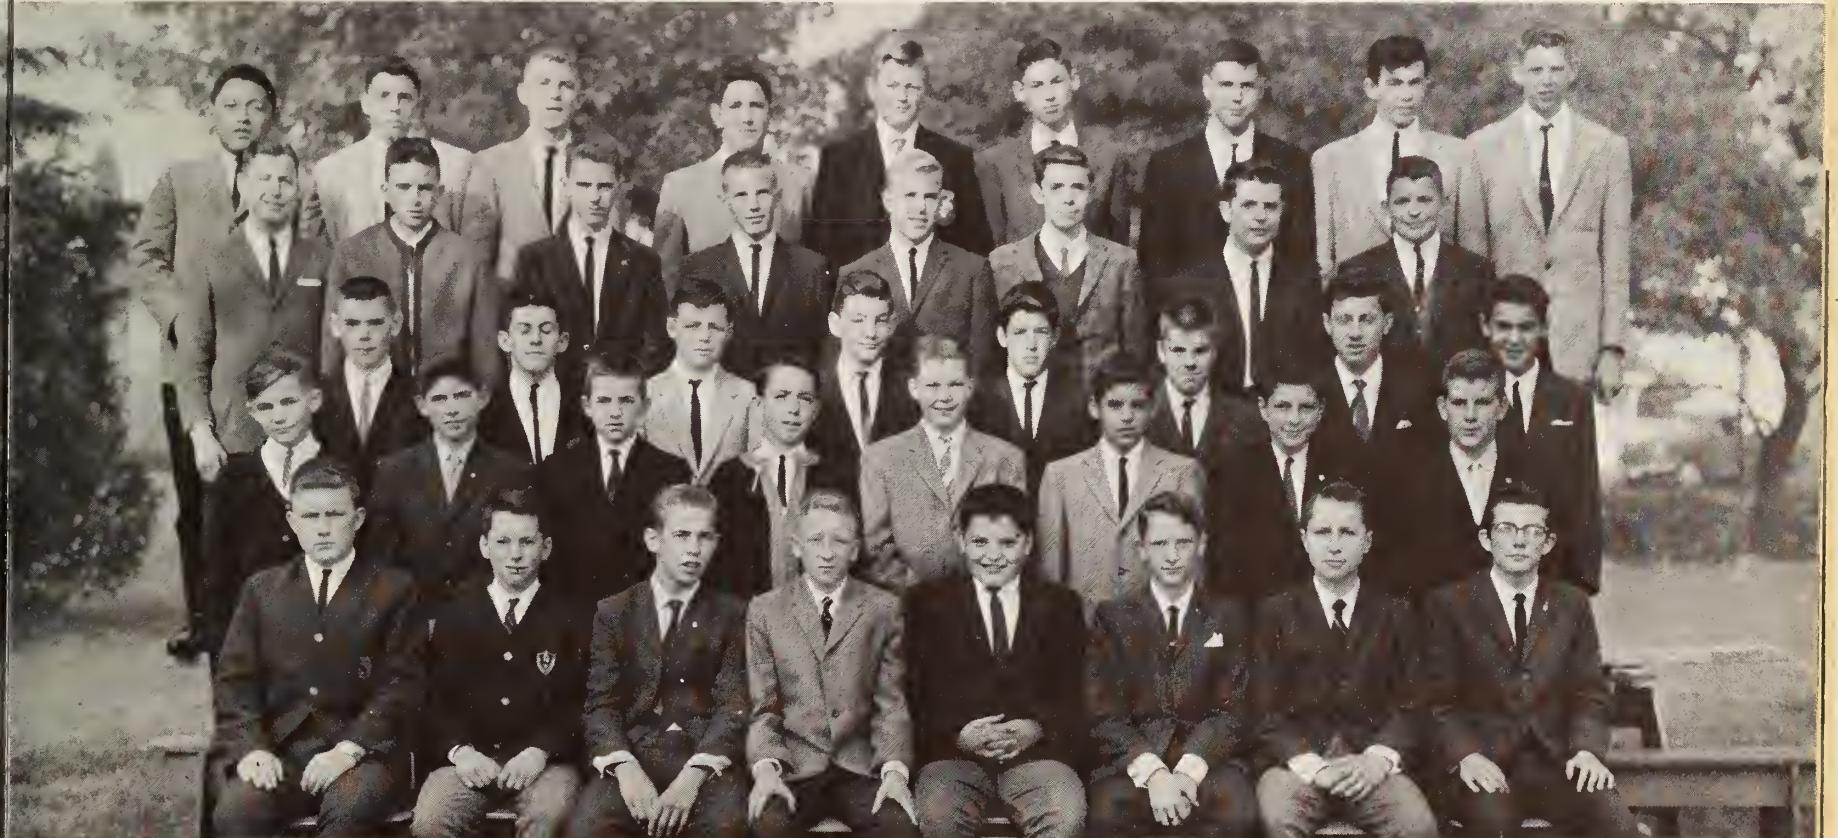

The ninth grade, or what is referred to as the Freshman Year, introduces the student to a new phase of education, and one which is going to prove exceedingly more difficult than that of the preceding Grammar School years. He has left his boyhood behind and has entered the first stages of manhood. From now until the day that he graduates, the student will undergo the most important period in his character training. But it is his Freshman year that will play a most significant part in this training, for it is during this year that the student becomes adequately versed in the role that he is to play as a student - a role which will be further developed as his school years progress.

As the student reflects on those eight years he realizes it was quite an accomplishment to have advanced so far. He has worked and taken pride in those fruitful years. Now he is ready to take another step from boyhood to manhood. He has not yet faltered in his purpose, but there are still four more years - years more difficult, more trying than all those through which he has come. But he can succeed, and must, for as he passes greater challenges, his destiny is insured by the theme of our education: "Handle with Care". He is our greatest hope for the next generation and we bequeath to him not only our accomplishments but our hopes and problems.

SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Cal Murphy

This year's fighting Irish proved a powerful football team. Despite a rather heavy 11 game schedule, the season included seven wins and only four losses. This was College's first year in the Skyline Conference (consisting also of Notre Dame, St. Thomas Aquinas, Squamish, St. Thomas More and Aldergrove) and it proved a successful one, seeing the Irish emerge undefeated and winners of the Skyline Conference trophy.

Throughout the season the Irish squad showed real football spirit, marked ability and form. The defense and offense demonstrated the recognizable Vancouver College football enthusiasm. Particularly outstanding individuals during the season were Rick McHale, captain, and winner of the coveted "Most Outstanding Lineman" award, as well as tackles Charlie Fisher and Chris Beaton and center Brent Gilker. Along with Joe Chan, Cornel Dukowski, Greg Stashuk, Dave Golinsky, and Bob Fitzpatrick, these men formed the core of the College team. Comprising the offensive backs, all of whom play equally well on defensive, are Rodger Gregory, who took the outstanding backfield honors, Roy Carey, Greg Melnechuk, and Merv Killoran. Spearheading these men was Ted Kotschorek, whose skillful passing and play calling accounted for a good part of the Irish's repeated successes.

The real source of the team's strength, however, was coach Cal Murphy, assisted by Herb Carey. It was they who drove the team, by means of much practice and many lectures, to its victory.

We must also remember the managers Bill Janyk and Rich Duggan, the recipients of the menial chores and inglorious tasks, who were, nevertheless, integral to the efficient running of the team.

"Get out of my way!" as Radger Gregory wards off a Squamish attacker.

Ray Carey dives forward on his "patented" counter play.

This year, American teams proved excellent competition. Of the five American games played, College won only one; but we emerged victorious over all six Canadian teams encountered.

The first American game resulted in a loss to Sumner High of Washington by a score of 27-6. Later in the season the team lost to Bellingham 8-0 and Cascades 19-13. Both these games were heartbreakers due to fumbles and poor pass defense which thwarted College's chances for victory. The remaining American games were hard-fought battles indeed, with the Irish winning one, against Meadowdale, 26-13, and losing the other to the Grants Pass "Cavemen" by a score of 32-13.

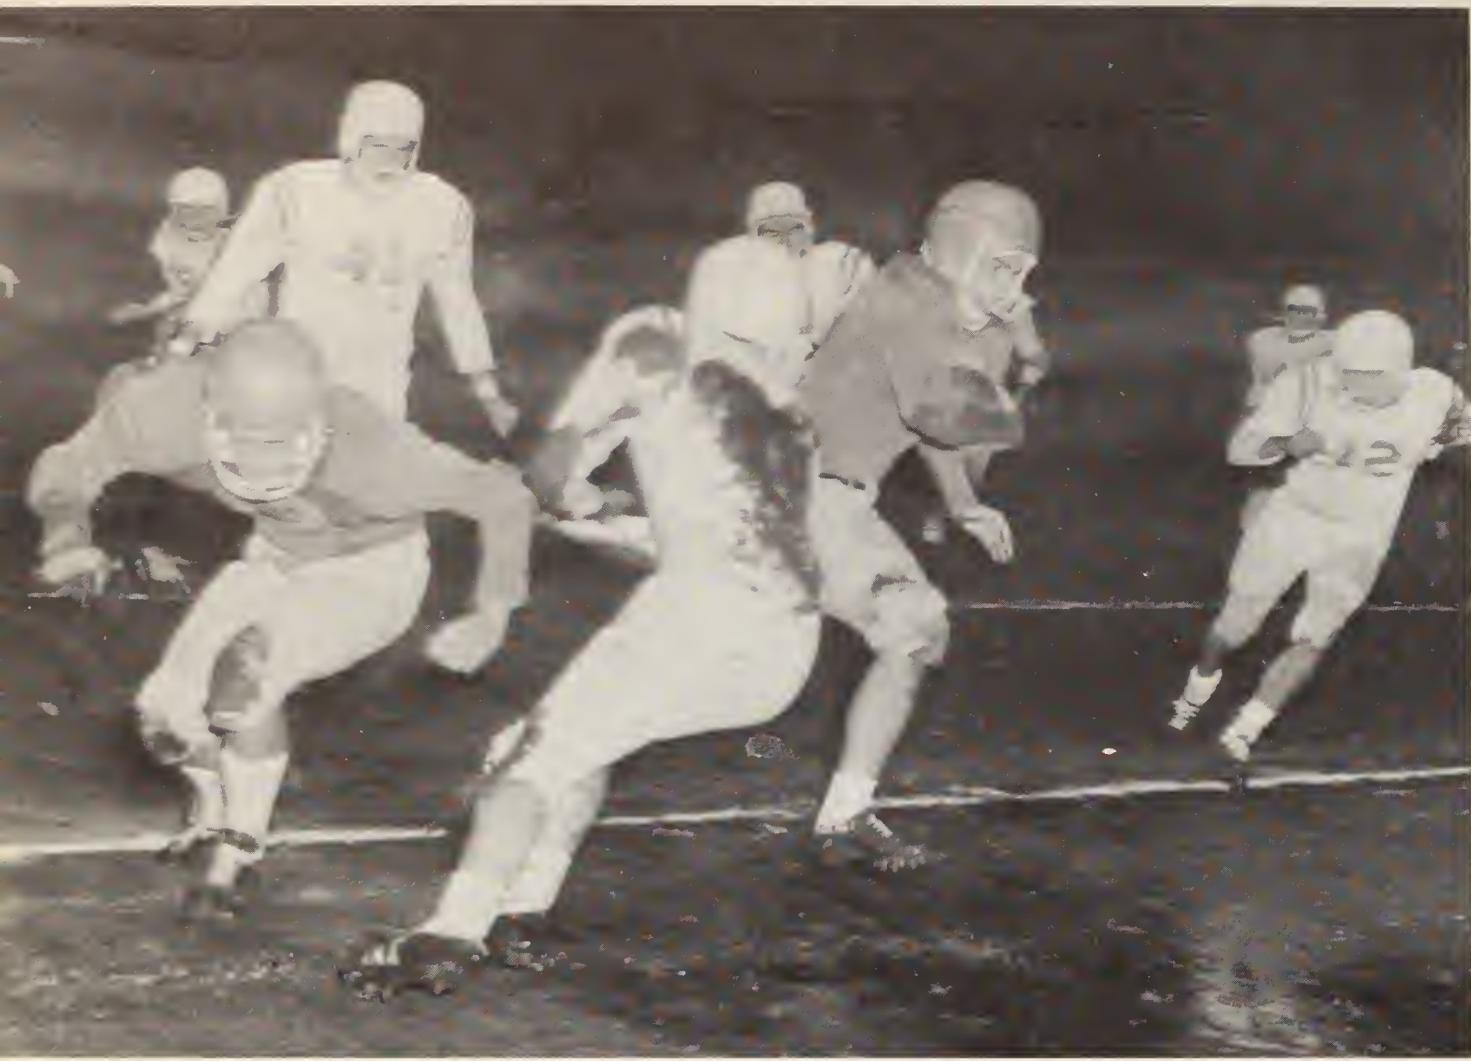

The Canadian games, five of which were played in the Skyline Conference, weren't quite as challenging as contests against American squads. No team scored more than seven points against the Irish, and three games—those against St. Thomas More, St. Thomas Aquinas, and Aldergrove—were shutouts.

Abbotsford, however, proved a most challenging team and, in fact, kept the Irish on tenterhooks as half-time saw the score at 6-6. During the second half three College touchdowns brought the score up to 28-6.

The traditional Remembrance Day contest against Notre Dame saw College take home the Archbishop's Trophy for the seventh consecutive year; the score was 25-7. On this occasion the awards for Most Outstanding Lineman and Backfielders were given to Rick McHale and Rodger Gregory respectively. This final game of the season established College as Skyline Conference champions.

Junior Irish Show Their Skill

Dennis Hugh shakes off tackler and rounds the end.

Coaches DeJulius and Toljanich give pre-game pep talk.

The Junior varsity football team maintained the college tradition: it was not, in spirit, a losing team. Despite contests against bigger and older opponents, they achieved an admirable record: two wins, two losses and two ties. Their showing during the season typified fused proficiency; and many J.V. players helped the Varsity in their Skylining Conference victories. With the nucleus of this year's squad in grade nine, there is great promise for next year.

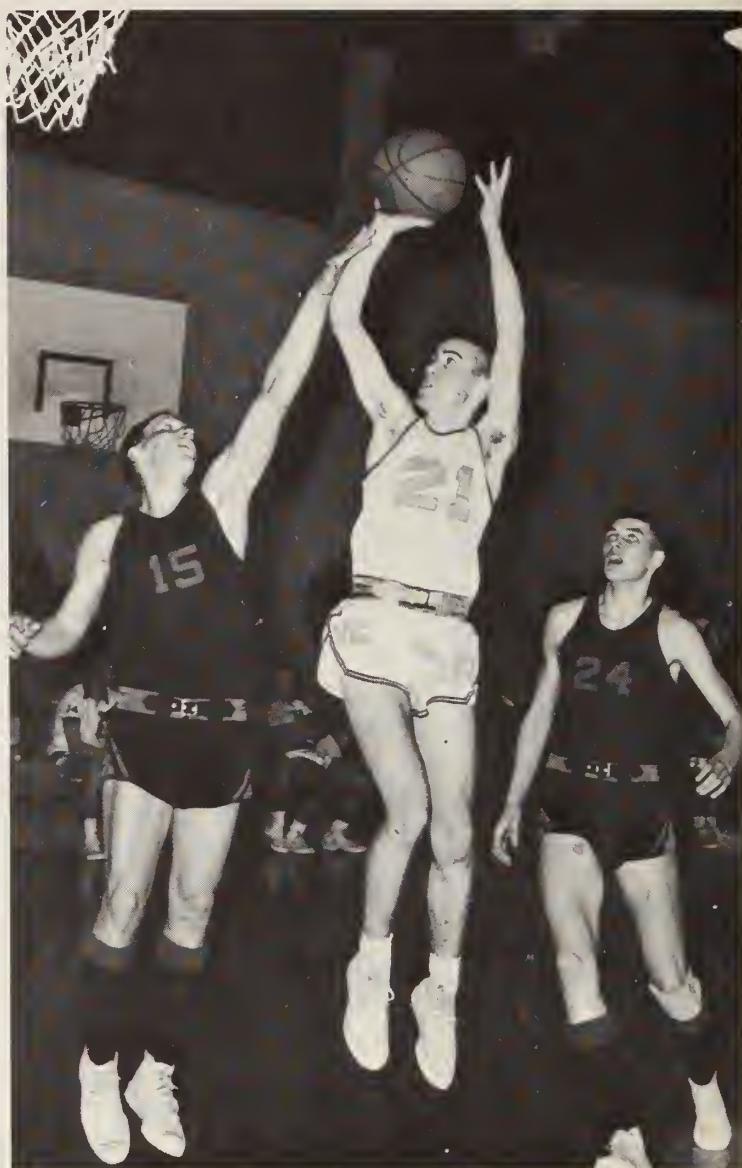

"Hey Coach! Someone turned off the lights."

JUNIOR IRISH

BASKETBALL

Paul Claridge battles for the ball while Dave Canley and Terry Zweng stare in amazement.

The Junior Irish displayed strong potential and an aggressive spirit which will be reflected in future senior teams. The squad finished with a fine record of 12 wins and 4 losses. They were eliminated from the B.C. Tournament by Prince of Wales in a game which went right to the wire. The tremendous determination - characteristic of many College teams, was not lacking in this year's J.V. squad. The Junior Irish should emerge strong contenders for the Provincial Championship in 1967.

College Dominates

First Annual Track Meet

The year 1963 saw the inception of the annual Vancouver College Invitational Track Meet. The Meet was clearly dominated by College athletes. Gary Smallenburg was runner up for Senior Boys Aggregate. Brent Gilker was also outstanding setting a record in the Junior Boys mile. Duane Riordan was top for the Senior Boys, setting a record in the Senior Boys mile. Still another record was set by the Senior Boys 440 relay team composed of Duane Riordan, Barry Coughlin, Rick McHale, and Rodger Gregory.

Due to a splendid team effort the Fighting Irish won the Team Aggregate, defeating all other Catholic schools by a good margin.

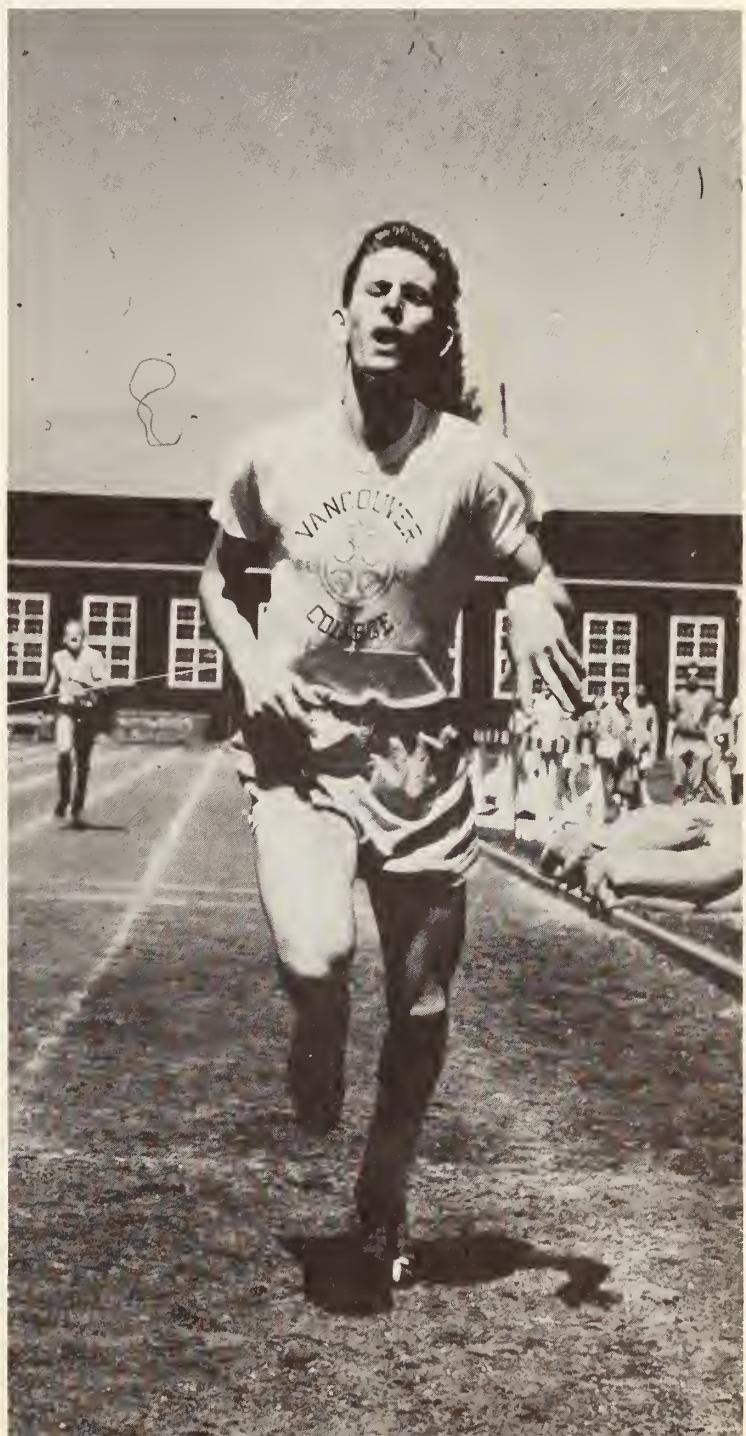

"Take wings little discus," says Vic Dukowski.

This year's boxing team was an exemplary group of young students with real potential and spirit. The school was represented on many occasions by fine fighters in all weight divisions.

The team was entered in the Bronze Gloves E.V.O. Tournament, and the P.N.E. Gardens Tournament, and in all events the positive spirit evident in every College team was plain in the boxing squad. One of the important triumphs of the season was the securing of the Bronze Gloves team trophy by taking 6 out of 12 bouts in the tournament. The entire team record reads: 25 bouts, 17 finalists, 13 wins and 12 losses.

Coach Archie MacDonald did a terrific job with the boys and is sure we will be well represented in years to come.

ACTIVITIES

Sodality of the Blessed Virgin

Senior Sodality members hold their weekly meetings under the direction of Br. Rowland. From left to right they are Frank Solmon, Chris Lom, Bonner Reinking, Mike Mohoney, Harold Clore, Henry Von Driel, Don Emonuele, Rick Troy, Brion Burke, Robert Morgan.

Br. Rowland and Br. Berndlmoier accompany the delegates to the Seattle University Sodality conference.

This year the Senior Sodality continued in the work which has proven it to be a prominent and vital organization in the life of Vancouver College.

At Thanksgiving, the Sodality held its drive to provide turkeys and canned goods for twenty needy families in Vancouver; at Christmas it sponsored the sale of Christmas cards.

Moderated by Brother J. P. Rowland, and with Harold Clare as Prefect, Mike Mahoney as Vice-Prefect, and Henry Van Driel as Secretary, the Sodality sent seven members to the Northwest Conference in Seattle, and sponsored the British Columbia Sodality Conference.

Sodolist, George Ewonus, ponders the immense number of canned goods that were donated by the student body for the Sodality Thanksgiving Hamper Drive.

Father Roberts gives a speech on the Ecumenical Council during the Sodality Conference held at Vancouver College.

Under their moderator, Brother Rowland, and prefect, Gary Smallenberg, Grade 11 Sodality members: Dove Galinsky, George Ewonus, Mike Paris, Dove Lewis, and Bill Gaylie, hold weekly meetings to promote Catholic Action.

Horold Morsden, Kevin Moaney, David Norman, and Kevin McGuiness listen intently as Grade 10 Sodality Moderator, Brother Berndlmaier, explains a point of interest.

Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary here at Vancouver College is an extension of a world-wide organization. The purpose is to promote Catholic Action. Charity work of all descriptions occupies the Legion: visiting infirmaries and the Children's Hospital; distributing literature to sailors on visiting ships and attempting to bring fallenaway Catholics back to the Faith.

During an apostolic mission to the "Cleerton" from Newcastle, England, Michael Storey distributes pamphlets to one of the crew.

Taking time out from their Thursday night meeting are Michael Storey, Don Reynolds, Phil Steigerwold, Raymond Goyle, Bruce Irving, moderator Br. Barnes and the delegate from the Archdiocesan curio, Mr. K. H. Murphy.

The Religious Life of the Student

Rick McHale and Bab Fitzpatrick stop for a minute to meditate on the story of the nativity.

The sports staff, Greg Stashuk, Gary Gilraine, Rick McHale and Mike Halladay, presents a picture of bustling activity as they prepare for a forthcoming deadline.

Bill Liddell and Chris Wingham spend their coffee break proofreading a layout for the high school section.

The members of the business staff: Gary Smallenberg, Phil Harrison, Brian Burke, Tam Gray, type up ad contracts and send out bills.

Co-operation, as typified by Keith Moare, Jae Beaupre, and Brent Bitz of the Activity Staff, is the key to success.

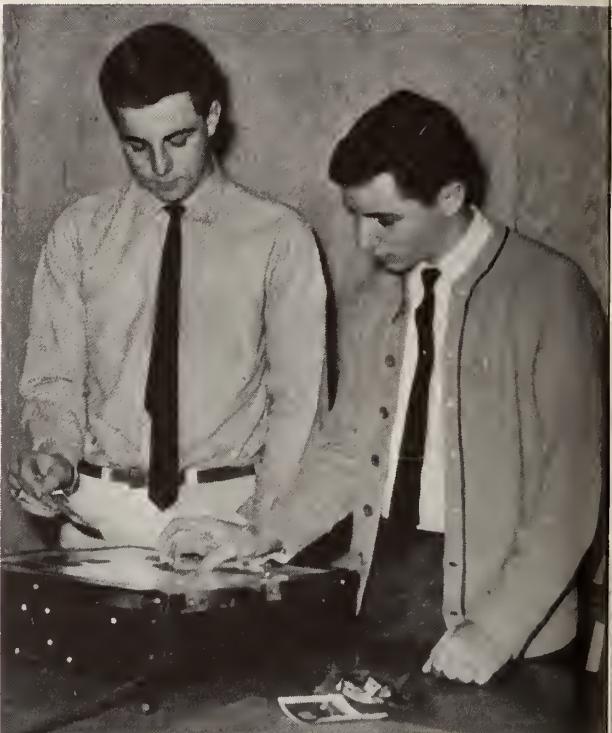

Allen Penlond and Gordon Turnbull direct staff-photographer Dennis Gons as to what type of picture they need for their Grammar School section

Throughout the year Copy and Art editors, Dove Smyth and Chris Lom, pooled their talents to complete work for various editors.

The staff of the Collegian wishes to express its gratitude to Mr. Manuel Espinosa of Hannay's and Mr. Bruce Forrest of Inter-Collegiate Press Ltd. for their contributions to this years edition.

Bill Goylie is counseled by Phil Blonchard on the technique of choosing good negatives for their Faculty section.

Kevin Kovanough, Peter Kollos and George Ewonus formed the team responsible for most of the fine darkroom work in the yearbook. Some help in this department was given by Rick Troy, Chris Wingham and Stephen Kollos.

The Graduate section gets a thorough going over by Horold Clore and Honk Von Driel.

Associated Students' Club

This year saw the inception of a new student organization at Vancouver College — the Associated Students' Club. As the name implies, the club is composed of various elements of the student body, including members of the Monogram Club, class officers, and honor students in grades eleven and twelve.

The idea behind the Associated Students' Club is to give more students a chance to participate in the planning and execution of various activities.

During this first year of operation, the Associated Students' Club ushered at football games, sold Booster Club sweaters, and selected cheerleaders.

The Steering Committee which guides the operation of the Associated Students Club is composed of: Gary Smallenberg, Tom Gray, Ray Carey, Brian McCarry, Harald Clare, Rick McHole, and Brian Collins.

Dennis Deacon and Brent Bitz receive their Booster Club sweaters from Tom Firth.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club this year continued to supply much of the time and talent necessary for the smooth operation of extracurricular and sports activities.

Membership is a privilege which comes only through participation in Varsity athletics, yet the Monogram Club also includes successful students and class officers.

Under the leadership of moderator Mr. Cal Murphy and president Rick McHale, the Monogram Club's duties included ushering at basketball games, at first Friday Mass, and organizing pep rallies.

Mrs. Dorothy Galdrick.

Ebeneezer Scrooge is startled by the ghost of his former partner, Jacob Marley.

On the occasion of the Christmas Concert this year, the Drama Club produced one of its most ambitious endeavors — Charles Dickens' famous story A CHRISTMAS CAROL. Nick Orton as Scrooge and Chris Wingham as Bob Cratchit highlighted a cast of twelve.

Two performances were given, one for the student body and the other for parents and friends. Both were well received.

A bewildered Scrooge gazes at the apparition presented to him by the Ghost of Christmas Past.

Grades One and Two capture the hearts of the audience with their rendition of "Waaden Soldier."

The Grammar School nativity scene impressed on the audience the true meaning of Christmas.

Stage crew, John Ewanus and Bill Goylie, prepare to adjust lighting for a scene in "A Christmas Carol."

Andrew MacKenzie and Don O'Leary tape the sound effects in preparation for the play.

Senior Glee Club

Fifty-five young male singers is an imposing assemblage at least. Directed by Mr. M. Dean and moderated by Brother G. P. Lyons, these young men were consolidated into a musical organization of admirable versatility and accomplishment.

Twice during the year the Senior Glee Club entertained — once at Christmas, and again at St. Patrick's Day — and on both occasions presented a program of selections of characteristic freshness and verve.

As well as their achievements as pure entertainers, the Senior Glee Club also performed an extremely important service in singing First Friday Masses throughout the year.

Mr. Deon assisted by Worren Reid at the piano directs members of the Senior Glee Club.

ABSENT: Roy Worren, John Sunley, Jim Metzler, Frank Fogorossy, Alphonse Gomez, Dove Murison.

Senior Boarders

The senior boarders are a diverse group. Their ranks are filled with boys from all over the world, making up a total of sixty, and everyone a representative individual.

No facet in the development of a Catholic young man is neglected with the boarders. Study commences daily at five o'clock, and in addition, the opportunity to participate in a wide range of sports, including football, basketball, volleyball and softball, is offered.

The senior boarders are, in fact, one of the school's largest clubs. And leadership in this regard is provided by President Mike Patterson and Vice President Augusto Fortuny.

It is a tribute to the boarders that they number among themselves some of the high school's finest students and young gentlemen.

Don Ferguson and Com MacKenzie ponder how to get another suitcase into the locker.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Paul Giroday and Bob Turner race in to help Richard Gormon bring down Jim Kennedy.

After four consecutive years as grammar school football champs, the Golden Warriors this year relinquished their title to the Blue Jets. While teamwork is an integral part in the athletic victory of a group, no good team is without its outstanding members. In this context then, special mention must go to Blue Jets members Bob Fortin, Joe Alvaro, Frank Mamoser, John Mills and Dennis Kelly. On the Golden Warriors, we should cite Paul Costello, Dennis Giroday, Jim Williams and Bob Sung; and in the case of the Red Raiders, Harry Brandolini, Paul Giroday and Richard Longpre.

Which young man saves regularly at *ScotiaBANK ?

Both do . . . because both realize that regular saving is the wise way to make sure of getting the things they really want.

Thousands of students have savings accounts at The Bank of Nova Scotia. There you can be sure of a friendly welcome no matter what the size of your account may be. The important thing is to develop the regular savings habit . . . then your savings account book becomes a door to opportunity and a basis for security. If you have not opened an account, plan to call at your Bank of Nova Scotia soon.

The Gay Blade Shop FOR YOUNG MEN

There is much fashion to be seen within the portals of this establishment. The selection of which has been influenced by the preferences of gentlemen attending Universities east and west. The best of tradition will be found at prices that are in keeping with the Gay Blades' sense of fair play for the college allowance — drop in soon and often.
